Jackson Citizen Patriot Endorses Stabenow Recommends People of Michigan Re-elect Debbie Stabenow

Lansing—The Jackson Citizen Patriot today endorsed Senator Debbie Stabenow for re-election to the United States Senate. Currently 16 newspapers across the state have endorsed Senator Stabenow in the general election, including the Detroit Free Press, Lansing State Journal, Ann Arbor News, Flint Journal, Saginaw News, Bay City Times, Traverse City Record-Eagle, Petoskey News-Review, Battle Creek Enquirer, Ludington Daily News, South Bend Tribune, the Observer & Eccentric, the Livingston County Daily Press and Argus, the Michigan Daily, and the Greenville Daily News.

The Jackson Citizen Patriot highlighted the Senator's leadership on the Canadian trash issue as a key reason for the endorsement. The Jackson Citizen Patriot states "...Senator Stabenow and her colleague Sen. Carl Levin bypassed the unproductive route of legislation and reached a voluntary agreement with Ontario officials."

Pointing to her vote against the Iraq war and steadfast support for our troops, the Jackson Citizen Patriot applauded Stabenow for providing a "clear position on this divisive issue." Mike Bouchard, on the other hand, "had to be backed into a response on what he would have done on the Iraq war vote."

The Citizen Patriot also commended Senator Stabenow for reaching across the aisle to introduce legislation to hold countries like China and Japan accountable for stealing our ideas and manipulating currency. "With Senator Lindsey Graham, R-S.C., she has introduced bipartisan legislation to create a Chief Trade Prosecutor position to enforce trade agreements and deal with illegal trade practices," stated the Jackson Citizen Patriot.

"I am very proud to have the endorsement of the Jackson Citizen Patriot and the support of people across Michigan," said Stabenow. "There is a clear choice in this election and the people of Michigan know what is at stake. I am fighting and delivering results for Michigan workers and their families every day."
