PBS to Rebroadcast Debate Statewide

Lansing- Due to technical difficulties that slightly delayed the broadcast of last night's statewide-televised debate between Senator Debbie Stabenow and her opponent, Mike Bouchard, WGVU will be offering the debate for rebroadcast on PBS stations across the state on Sunday, October 22nd at 7pm.

Senator Stabenow will also be joined by Mike Bouchard for their second debate this Wednesday, October 18th at the Detroit Economic Club. The televised debate will be available on October 29th on Detroit Public Television.
