Michigan Deserves Solutions, Not Empty Attacks

Lansing – Mike Bouchard’s new television ad, released today, provides more of the same from Mr. Bouchard: desperate attacks and no ideas. Bouchard has spent millions of dollars of his supporters’ money on television advertising, advertising that focuses solely on distorting Debbie Stabenow’s record and offers zero solutions for Michigan.

“This is the fourth Bouchard ad in a row that distorts Senator Stabenow’s record while failing to mention even a single idea Mike Bouchard has for Michigan,” said Stabenow Spokesperson Brent Colburn. “Michigan deserves a Senator who has a record of delivering results, a strategy to help keep and create jobs here at home, and the backbone to stand up to the Bush economic policies that have cost us jobs. Just like George Bush, Mike Bouchard is long on slogans and short on ideas, and that’s just not good enough.”

The facts may be inconvenient for Mike Bouchard, but they couldn’t be clearer:

FACT: Debbie Stabenow opposes the Bush economic policies that have cost us jobs and driven us into debt, policies Mike Bouchard embraces.

FACT: Debbie Stabenow does not support giving social security for illegal immigrants. In fact, the independent website factcheck.org (www.factcheck.org) debunked Mike Bouchard’s erroneous claim.

FACT: Debbie Stabenow’s deal to stop over one million tons of Canadian trash a year coming into Michigan has been widely praised as the first true progress on this important issue in years.
