Stabenow for Senate Releases New Television Ad “Jobs” Touts Stabenow’s Record, Refutes False GOP Claims

Lansing—The Stabenow for Senate campaign today unveiled a new television ad for her 2006 re-election campaign, entitled “Jobs.” The ad highlights Senator Stabenow’s record of results for Michigan families and workers, while addressing misleading claims made about her by her opponent, Mike Bouchard. To learn more about Mike Bouchard’s false attack that Senator Stabenow supports giving social security to illegal immigrants please check out the independent analysis of the claim at factcheck.org (<http://www.factcheck.org/article447.html>) To view “Jobs,” please visit <http://www.stabenowforsenate.com/jobs>.

Jobs:

Senator Stabenow:

I'm Debbie Stabenow and I approve this message

Narrator:

Mike Bouchard's attacks against Debbie Stabenow? False!

Stabenow voted to toughen our borders

Social Security for illegal immigrants? Never.

That's why she's endorsed by the National Committee to Preserve Social Security.

And Stabenow voted no on the Bush guest worker bill that threatened our jobs.

Mike Bouchard? He supports the Bush economic plan that cost Michigan jobs

Unfair Trade. Outsourcing jobs. Privatizing Social Security.

Michigan can't afford Mike Bouchard.

END AD TEXT

“Michigan voters could not have a more clear choice next Tuesday,” said Stabenow Spokesperson Brent Colburn. “Mike Bouchard is offering nothing but political attacks, while Debbie Stabenow is offering solutions. Bouchard can keep throwing mud all he wants, but its not going to stop Debbie Stabenow from talking to Michigan about the issues that matter to them. Michigan knows that Debbie Stabenow has offered real results for our state, while Mike Bouchard continues to blindly support the Bush economic policies that keep costing us jobs. Michigan just can't afford Mike Bouchard.”
