Stabenow for Senate Releases New Television Ad “Michigan Manufacturing” to Hit the Airwaves

Lansing—Senator Debbie Stabenow today unveiled the third television ad of her 2006 re-election campaign, entitled “Michigan Manufacturing.” In the ad Peter Perez, President of Carter Products in Grand Rapids, discusses how a Chinese manufacturer stole the patent to his product and threatened his business. He explains that when the Bush administration did nothing to help, Senator Stabenow stood up for Michigan manufacturers: fighting for a trade prosecutor to stop cheaters and providing tax cuts to businesses that create jobs here in Michigan.

Michigan Manufacturing:

Peter Perez:

“When a Chinese company stole our patent they had the whole Chinese government on their side.

“The Bush administration did nothing to help. But Senator Debbie Stabenow took up our fight.

“Debbie fought for a trade prosecutor to stop cheaters.

“And Debbie passed a bill that gives tax cuts to companies that create jobs in Michigan.

“I’m not a Republican I’m not a Democrat I’m a manufacturer and I support Debbie Stabenow because she supports manufacturing in the state of Michigan.”

Senator Stabenow:

“I’m Debbie Stabenow and I approve this message.”
